

Land Surveyor

RPA is an award-winning 100 percent employee-owned (ESOP) civil engineering, landscape architecture and land surveying firm with offices in Helena, Kalispell and Bozeman, Montana and Fort Collins, Colorado.

RPA is seeking a highly motivated, detail-oriented Land Surveyor to join our Helena office. The successful candidate will assist in topographic surveys, cadastral surveys, boundary retracement, construction surveys, subsurface utility locating, and horizontal/vertical control surveys. Projects can range from road improvement/planning projects in National Parks in Washington and Alaska, to Federal mapping and control surveys in Nevada and Colorado, to airport improvements throughout Montana. Travel away from the office is expected and can be for a week or weeks at a time during some periods.

Persons enrolled or graduated from an accredited survey program will be considered; a minimum two years of Land Surveying experience is preferred. An Associate's or Bachelor's degree in the surveying field is also preferred, but not required. PLS, LSI and non-licensed individuals will all be considered for this position.

Requirements include:

- Willingness to travel
- Experience in field survey work
- Superior attention to detail
- Ability to get along/work well with others
- Willingness to learn
- Ability to work outside and survey independently
- Ability to effectively communicate, both verbally and in writing

Preferred qualifications include:

- Experience in survey data reduction
- Proficiency in Trimble Software
- Proficiency with MicroStation/GEOPAK software
- Proficiency in AutoCAD / Civil 3D software

Benefits include:

- Ability to gain Land Surveying experience quickly on a variety of interesting and exciting projects
- Competitive pay that will depend on experience
- Very competitive benefits
